

Gregory White Youth Minister

Gregory White was born May 22, 1961 in Jackson, Mississippi. He attended Jordan High School in Durham, North Carolina where he graduated in 1979. Greg continued his education by attending Tuskegee University (1979-1983) and Atlanta University (1983-1985) for graduate school. Greg received a B.S. degree in Business Administration and M.B.A in Marketing. Greg walks by faith and enjoys his family. He is married to the former Joniese Jones and has three children, Noah, Jordyn and Jewel. Greg is the offspring of the late Dr. Ernest White and Lillian White and the younger brother of Sharon White.

Gregory White was baptized on June 1, 1997 and began his spiritual walk to bring individuals to Jesus Christ. Greg has a passion for families and children and worked in the nursery from 1997 to 2005. He was ordained as a Deacon at Hillcrest Church of Christ in January 2001. He has served in several capacities at Hillcrest including the treasury, coordinator of the Men's retreat and currently implements the annual Fall Festival. He was appointed the Youth Minister in December of 2006. Greg has implemented Youth Night the fourth Sunday of each month to recognize Hillcrest youth for bible, academic and community accomplishments, helped to develop a stronger pre-teen and teen bible study program and spearheaded numerous projects to bring about youth evangelism, family focused fellowship, and character building experiences for children.

Greg is a DeKalb community leader that enjoys impacting lives and creating healthy opportunities for all ages. Outside his responsibilities at Hillcrest he has served as the Allgood PTA President, Bar Association Support to Improve Corrections Instructor, City of Decatur Earth Day Chair and currently serves as an Advisory Board Member for the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame. Greg is a historian of Negro League Baseball and currently is the promoter for the former Atlanta Black Cracker James Red Moore.

Favorite Scripture: 1st Corinthians 15:58

Hobbies: Fellowship, love for dogs, horses, reptiles and sports memorabilia.

Motto: Live Health, Live for God